

DIANA AND JIM SGRAZZUTTI :

The Sgrazzuttis were nominated by Chris and Sam Bouhanna. The Bouhannas wrote that the Sgrazzuttis do wonderful things not only for their neighbors, but also their friends, family and church. They have taken in people who cannot be home alone and nursed them back to health or taken people to doctor's appointments. They have cooked for people and helped people move. They take care of four of six of their grandchildren, and the Bouhannas said they teach them valuable life skills. Most importantly, they wrote that the Sgrazzuttis give support in both words and actions and are always there to listen and offer advice. "We know we can always count on them for just about everything," the Bouhannas wrote. "We have never heard them utter one word of complaint about anything they do to help people."
