

GEORGE LOZANO:

Mr. Lozano was nominated by June and Bill Clarke of Lusby, Maryland, after he risked his life to save Mrs. Clarke from an overturned pick-up truck. The Clarkes were driving a truck with a trailer along I-96 in Ionia County on their way to Silver Lake State Park on Aug. 1. The trailer started to fishtail and Mrs. Clarke lost control of the truck. The trailer broke free of the hitch and the truck flipped over. Though Mr. Clarke was able to get out of his door, the crushed roof had blocked Mrs. Clarke's door from opening. Smoke began pouring out of the engine, but just as Mrs. Clarke said, "I am going to die," she heard Mr. Lozano's voice say, "You are not going to die." Mr. Lozano had stopped to help and pulled her through the truck window seconds before the truck burst into flames. "This young man risked his life to save me," said Mrs. Clarke. "All I suffered were a few broken ribs."
