

JOHN & GERI TUHARSKY and ROGER & EILEEN HUNTER (7-19-11)

The Tuharskys and Hunters were nominated by their neighbor, Chris Semanisin. Mr. Semanisin moved onto Winston Street nearly five years ago where he quickly discovered that his new neighbors set the standard for how all yards should look in the city.

Year in and year out, the Tuharsky and Hunter residences display premium landscaping that leaves most people in the neighborhood envious, while brightening the community for everyone.

Mr. Semanisin states in his letter that, "if our city had more residents like these people, the city would be a better place."
