

JOHN SAARI

John Saari, employee at the Chrysler Sterling Heights Assembly Plant, for work performed above and beyond his typical job duties. John was nominated by his co-worker Dan Damstetter. After the announcement of the Chrysler Chapter 11 bankruptcy, employees at the plant were unable to obtain purchase orders to continue the lawn cutting services. Mr. Saari immediately took matters into his own hands. With the help of fellow employees, lawn work was performed during regular business hours, ensuring that the grounds and landscaping were maintained properly
